

WOOLF CONSULTING · AFTER OUR 30 MINUTES

Your Conversation, Continued.

A short summary of what we covered, the connection we found, and three ways to take it further. Including one option that's only on the table for 7 days.

01. What We Covered

Hi [Name], thanks for the 30 minutes. Here's a short recap of what we worked through together — partly so you have a paper trail, partly so the value of what we found doesn't slip out of your head over the next few days.

The problem you brought to the table

IN YOUR WORDS

[Paste the prospect's stated problem here — quote them directly when possible. The more concrete and in-their-language, the better.]

What we did with it in 15 minutes

THE LIVE WORK

[One paragraph: what you actually did during the demo. Be specific. "We pulled X document, ran it through Y, and produced Z." Reference what they saw on the shared screen.]

The connection we found

THE SYNTHESIS · THE REASON THIS MATTERS

[THIS IS THE MOST IMPORTANT BLOCK. Name the one synthesis insight from the Reveal phase. The thing they couldn't have seen from inside their day-to-day. This is the moment they're paying $299 to revisit. Make it specific, name it cleanly, and remind them why it matters in their language.]

What I'd do next, if it were my problem

[2-3 sentences. Paint the picture of the immediate next move — the thing you'd do in the next session if they book. Don't pitch the package yet. Just describe the work. The package comes on the next page.]

02. Three Ways To Take This Further

Below are the three ways we work with people. The numbers on this page are the standard rates — the ones on the next page are the personal offer I told you about during the call, which expires [Date 7 days from demo].

QUICK ANSWER

The Spark

$249

60 min · One focused problem

A single working session for one specific question. We solve a piece together and you walk away with one clear next step.

SIGNATURE

3 HRS · ONE EVENING

The Late Night

$599

7–10 PM CT · 1-page memo by morning

One evening, three hours immersive. We pull a real problem and walk through three strategic scenarios. Written 1-page strategic memo within 24 hours.

TWO LATE NIGHTS · TWO WEEKS

The War Room

$1,499

For real strategic forks · 5-page memo

Two Late Nights over two weeks plus all-week email + text access between sessions. Written 5-page strategic memo when complete.

Each tier is a fixed-format experience with a fixed deliverable. No metering, no punch cards, no surprises.

Booking is by reply to this email. Payment via Stripe link sent on confirmation.

03. Because You Took The Demo

This is the part I mentioned during our call. Because you came through the free demo today, I can offer something I don't normally do — and don't list anywhere on the website. These prices are good for the next 7 days only. After that, they go back to the standard rates on the previous page.

🔒 PERSONAL OFFER · 7-DAY WINDOW

Same experiences.
Better prices. One time.

The Spark: · Save $50

The Late Night ★ : · Save $100

The War Room: · Save $250

OFFER EXPIRES [DATE 7 DAYS FROM DEMO, E.G., TUESDAY, APRIL 19] · NO EXTENSIONS.

Why the window is real

The 7-day expiration isn't a sales gimmick. The intro rate is something I extend specifically to people who took the time to show up to a free demo, while the value of what we did together is still fresh enough to act on. After a week, the impression decays and the discount stops making sense for either of us.

The honest recommendation: The Late Night at $499 is the obvious move for most people who took the demo. Three hours of focused work after-hours on a problem you've been carrying around — most clients tell me afterwards that one Late Night replaced about 20 hours of their own thinking. That's the math that actually matters.

What you actually get for The Late Night

One uninterrupted 3-hour evening session, 7–10 PM Central

We work through your real problem live — no slides, no canned demos

Walk through three strategic scenarios for your situation

Written 1-page strategic memo delivered within 24 hours of the session

Direct email access for follow-up questions for the next 2 weeks

First Late Night scheduled within 7 days of confirmation

04. How To Confirm

Pick your option and reply to this email with one of the words below. I'll send a Stripe payment link and a calendar invite within an hour. No forms, no contracts to sign — just one word and we're booked.

Reply with one word (or two)

"Spark"

$199 · 1 HOUR

"Late Night"

$499 · 3 HR EVENING

"War Room"

$1,249 · 2 WEEKS

If now isn't the right moment

That's a real answer too. If the timing isn't right — maybe you want to talk to a partner, maybe a different fire is bigger right now — just reply with "Not yet" and I'll close the loop without follow-up. The standard rates will still be there whenever you're ready, and the door stays open.

Questions?

Reply to this email with whatever's on your mind. I read every message personally and usually respond within a few hours during business days.
